An interesting incident connected with the departure of the Hon. Frederick Douglass for his official post as minister to Hayti was the courteous visit of Junior Lieutenant Edward Lloyd to Mr. Douglass and his family before the Kearsage sailed. Lieutenant Lloyd is an officer on the new cruiser "Boston," and is a great-grandson of the Colonel Edward Lloyd who was the owner of Mr. Douglass and his mother when they were slaves.

ALICE STONE BLACKWELL tells a curious story about a competition of sculptors in Boston many years ago. The matter of foot was the erection of a statue to a distinguished citizen who had recently died. All sculptors were invited to send models of the deceased citizen, and with them their names in seal envelopes. The model of Annie Whitney's model was decided to be the best, but when her envelope was opened the judges reversed their decision, as it was too much honor to bestow upon a woman.

Stowe.—Report says that on October 4, 1883, a gang of men commenced work on the Mount Mansfield Hotel. At about noon, October 4, 1883, smoke was seen issuing from the roof of the hotel and in a very short time the roof was a seething mass of flame. Men from all parts of the town, on hearing the fire bell ring, were soon on hand to render assistance. A large amount of furniture, including pianos, large mirrors, bedding, etc., were saved. A line of men and women was formed to the river and water was soon brought to save the village if possible. Fortunately there was but little loss, as what there was carried to the fire from rather than towards the rear buildings. The last part of the wall fell at about half-past two o'clock and the immediate danger was passed. A. C. Raymond's house, standing only about forty feet from the hotel, was saved only by the great exertion. Most of the villagers packed their valuables and many carried their goods to places of safety. No building however was burned but the hotel itself. The whiskey cellar, being in the lower part of the house, of course was saved. Quite a quantity, however, was said to have been stolen, and to all appearances considerable was drunk during the afternoon. A pall of silence which had been carried to a neighboring village was soon to be covered by a blanket and was being put in a man's wagon, when it was recovered. The main building was three hundred feet long and three stories high. The fire is supposed by some to have been started by a defective chimney. The loss is placed at $105,000, with from $35,000 to $40,000 insurance.

E. R. Cheney, a former resident and well known in these parts, is spending a few days in town.

The Stowe band will give a concert at the town hall, Tuesday evening, October 10. The entertainment will consist of piano solos by Miss Wallace of Cambridge, songs, duets, etc., by members of the band, and several selections by the band.

The friends of Miss Mira E. Conant, the organist at the Baptist church, gave her a genuine surprise on Friday evening last and left substantial tokens of esteem to the amount of nearly twenty-five dollars.

MALARIA literally means bad air. Poisonous germs arising from low, marshy land, or from decaying vegetable matter, are breathed into the lungs, taken up by the blood, and unless the vital fluid is purified by the use of a good medicine like Hood's Sarsaparilla, the unfortunate victim is soon overpowered. Even in the more advanced cases, where the terrible fever prevails, this successful medicine has effected remarkable cures. Those who are exposed to malarial or other poisons should keep the blood pure by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

HARKER'S for October opens with a poem, "Discovery," by Lucy Larcum. The frontispiece illustrates another poem by Austin Dobson, "The Noble Patron." Perhaps the most noticeable article in this number is Edward Bellamy's dream, "The Eyes Shut." It looks into the future and sees the most remarkable progress in perfecting phonographic appliances. "Captain Brooks' Prejudice" is a very readable story. The editorial discussion is of the usual high order.

Business Notices.

A FADED and discolored beard is untidy and a misfortune. It may be prevented by using Buckle's Eye for the Whiskers, a never-failing remedy.

JUDGE SIMPSON of the Superior court writes: From mental exhaustion, my nervous system became shattered, and I was utterly unable to sleep nights. Sulphur Bitters cured me, and my sleep is now sound, sweet, and refreshing.

WHEN you need a good, safe laxative, ask your druggist for a box of Ayer's Pills, and you will find that they give perfect satisfaction. For indigestion, torpid liver and sick headache there is nothing superior. Leading physicians recommend them.

THE most obstinate cases of catarrh are cured by the use of Ely's Cream Balm, the only agreeable remedy. It is not greasy or snuff and is easily applied into the nostrils. For cold in the head it is magical. It gives relief at once. Price fifty cents.

PROFESSOR GAUTHIER of Paris states that certain vital processes of the body develop putrefying substances in the tissues, which, if not speedily eliminated, produce disease. Ayer's Sarsaparilla effects the removal of these substances, and thereby preserves health.

PAIN and dread attend the use of most cathartic remedies. Liquids and snuffs are unpleasant as well as dangerous. Ely's Cream Balm is safe, pleasant, easily applied into the nostrils and a sure cure. It cleanses the nasal passages and heals the inflamed membrane, giving relief at once. Price fifty cents.

PIMPLES on the face cured. Sulphur Bitters will cure the worst case of skin disease; from a common pimple on the face to that awful disease scrofula, it is the best medicine to use in all cases of such stubborn and deep-seated disease. Do not delay; use Sulphur Bitters and drive the humor from your blood.

SOME foolish people allow a cough to run on till it gets beyond the reach of no cure. They say, "Oh, it will wear away," but in most cases it wears them away. Could they be induced to try the successful remedy, Kemp's Balsam, which is sold on a positive guarantee to cure, they would see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Price fifty cents and one dollar. Trial size free. At all druggists.

When the baby was sick we gave her Castoria. When she was a child she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss she clung to Castoria. When she had children she gave them Castoria.

CONSUMPTION CURED.—An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing, with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. NOYES, 149 Power's Block, Rochester, N. Y.

Look Here, Friend, Are You Sick? Do you suffer from dyspepsia, indigestion, sour stomach, liver complaint, nervousness, lost appetite, biliousness, exhaustion or dried feeding, pains in chest or lungs, dry cough, night sweats or any form of consumption? If so, send to Professor Hart-

88 Warren street, New York, who will send you free, by mail, a bottle of Phosphoricum, which is a sure cure. Send to-day.

BAIRRE, Vt.—"Two bottles of Anti-Apoplectic cured me of dizziness and pressure in head."—Jan Teckbury.

WEST ROXBURY, Vt.—"One bottle Anti-Apoplectic relieved me of dizziness, numbness of limbs and loss of appetite."—Mrs. J. W. Williams.

ESSEX, Vt.—"One bottle of Anti-Apoplectic gave me relief from rheumatism."—T. W. R. Nichols. It is sold by your druggist.

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, for children teething, is the prescription of one of the best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and has been used for forty years with never-failing success by millions of mothers for their children. During the process of teething its value is incalculable. It relieves the child from pain, cures dysentery and diarrhea, griping in the bowels and wind-colic, by giving health to the child it robs the mother. Price twenty-five cents a bottle.

Four Years on Crutches.

For fifteen years I was afflicted with rheumatism, four years for which I was compelled to go on crutches. Words are inadequate to express the suffering I endured during that time. During these fifteen years of existence (it was not living), I tried every known remedy without receiving any benefit. I finally began on Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) which from the first gave me relief, and to-day I am enjoying the best of health and am a well man. I candidly believe that S. S. S. is the best blood purifier on the market to-day.

J. D. TAYLOR, Cuba, Mo.
CANCER OF THE NOSE.
My father had cancer and my husband died of cancer. In 1875 a lump appeared on my nose, and from its appearance and rapid growth, I became alarmed with the idea that I, too, had cancer. I consulted my physician about it, and he gave me an out-ment to put on it; when this did not relieve me, he then burnt it out, but the tumor would not heal. It gradually grew longer and worse, and I had fully made my mind up that I must also die of cancer. Friends prevailed on me to try Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) This I finally consented to do. After taking a few bottles I was entirely cured. Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) cured me when the doctors and all other medicines failed.
